CUB SCOUT DAY CAMP

What is Cub Scout Day Camp?

Cub Scout Day Camp is a FUN-FILLED Outdoor Program with exciting activities not regularly found in Den or Pack activities. These activities include: skills, crafts, games, bb's, archery, advancements and much more!

Who can attend Cub Scout Day Camp?

Any registered Cub Scout or your son can register as a Cub Scout to attend as a day camper provided they will be entering grades 1 – 5 in the fall after Day Camp begins.

What can my Pack do to promote Day Camp?

Your Cubmaster can contact the Day Camp Director or District Executive to arrange for a presentation to be made to the Scouts and parents. Each Pack should assign a Day Camp Coordinator who will be responsible for promoting and collecting your registration forms and fees and turning them in by the "Early Bird" registration date.

Which Day Camp does my child attend?

Your child should try to attend the Day Camp in your District. However, if the dates and locations of another Day Camp are more convenient for you, your child can attend a different Day Camp.

How do I sign up my child for Day Camp?

New this year! Easy, no-fee online registration at BaldwinDistrictDayCamp.eventbrite.com

Or, you may complete the attached registration form and mail or fax it to the Council Service Center along with the fees by the "Early Bird" registration date for each Tiger Cub, Cub Scout, and Webelos Scout.

How can I help out at my child's Day Camp?

Parent and adult volunteers are needed to assist with the Day Camp in various roles. You can volunteer for a few hours, one day, multiple days or the entire week. Complete the volunteer section of your child's Day Camp registration when you send it in and your Day Camp Director or Program Director will contact you so you can choose the role you wish to volunteer.
